The name Bradley dates back to the fading years of the 10th century. the family was originally from Burgundy. In the year 1000 AD they were titled, but later during the intrigues of the Capetian Dynasty, they became pauperized. They were proud and liberty-loving race, and went with William the Conqueror to England. He enobled them and gave them many valuable possessions. The head of the>>>> house was Sir William Bradley. During the reign fo Queen Elizabeth, the Bradleys again became involved in political intrigues, and were expelled from England, when some went to Scotland, others to America, settling in Maryland, but subsequently moving to what is now Washington county, Virginia.

Elizabeth, dau. of John Bradley of Bradley county, Lanc., was wife of William Stone who came to Va in 1633.

Anne Bradley, alias Brockhull was a cousin of >>>>> William Cattlett.

Capt. William Bradley had a brother Robert

James Bradley, was father of John Bradley of Augusta County, Va where he resided prior to May 1765.

Here is one of the standard forms that genealogists use. You are number 1. Your father is number 2. Your mother is number 3. A father is two times his child's number. A wife is one more than her husband. Thus all men are even numbers, and all women are odd numbers.

I am still researching the Merritt, Bradley, Taylor, and Colley families. I am sure these are the families my mother described.

The Merritt children were: Pocahuntas,
Elizabeth, Mary, Edmon^{Jr.}, James, William.
There could have been others; but she remembered these for some special reason her father told about.

I must say these families ~~just~~ are intimidated by dates. Dates on census, tombs, and death certificates all disagree. Even Laruna's death certificate shows her buried in a different cemetery. I have recorded a lot of census records;
but so far, I have not been able to find Edmon Merritt's father.

Pocahuntas	said	- No.
Mary	said	Yes.
Edmon Jr.	"	SC.
Elizabeth	"	SC.

I have not been of help to you on marriage records.

Good luck,

Lila Thompson

THINGS I HAVE FOUND IN AUTHENTIC RECORDS ON THE EARLY BRADLEY FAMILIES
COMING INTO THE MISSISSIPPI TERRITORY - FROM NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA -
INTO GREEN CO. (CREATED 1811) NOW, PERRY COUNTY (CREATED 1820 FROM GREENE.)

Indications are that they were from the same place in No. Carolina as were the DAUGHDRILLS also in Greene Co. (they were located further So. East - now about 2 miles So. East of McLean, Miss.) - 1727-1753 Deeds.

NOTE: Surry Co. No. Abstracts, Vol. 1-#3 - 1771-1827. P. 50 - 2:50 - Terry Bradley's Will, 20 Sept. 1784 - Very sick, named - John Bradley, son of John Bradley, to get 300 acres of Land - Plantation on NS Dan River Court - Feb. 1785.

However, I found - Bradleys in Bertie Co, No. Carolina, 1771-1827. But, I find
No DAUGHDEILLS in Bertie Co. or Carolinas before the dates they are recorded in Mississippi Records. But, most likely, they did know each other, or were in the same Wagon-train emigrating party, for these families inter-married, and seemed to know each other.

Some of these facts, I have known these people: some, from Stella Myrick: who is Charlotte Jane Bradley Albritton's Granddaughter. Vivian Cockhron/Cockron DeShazo, who is Mary Bradley Daughdrill's granddaughter. Eva Scanlin M. Spence, who is Isabelle "Bell" Bradley's daughter.

Found many Bradleys in N. C. and S. C. Records: One Daniel Bradley's Auto-Biography, much later after Perry County, had a very full interesting life, once came to Florida and then returned to S. C., Prof. and natural citizen-interesting reading. Francis Bradley -Rev. Soldier-M.C.Ret., placed on Pension Roll, May 16, 1833, age 82, Pickens Dist. S.C. - $20.00 annually.

Persons Butchered at Hay's Station, Pickens Co. S.C. 1861. Bradley.
Thus, Gen Omar Bradley must enter into these Bradleys on some lineage.

BRADLEYS --- MISSISSIPPI GREENE/PERRY COUNTIES

THE FAMILY KNOWLEDGE - These Bradleys were from North Carolina - Found their way to Greene/Perry County - before 1811 - Mississippi Territory - The Community was known as Arlington School/Fairhope Baptist Church - After 1808 - One son born in S. C.

The School does not now (1976) exist. There are now two Churches - Arlington/Fairhope - (I, ZSA, was there) three/four miles No. East of Beaumont, Miss., Hi-way 98 to Hi-way 15 No. to Richton, Miss.

There is much more to learn and know about this family:

STELLA MYRICK, a great/great Granddaughter of this generation - now living in Hattiesburg, remembers many stories told to her by her Grandmother Charlotte Bradley Albritton. She visited this Community with her Aunt Jane A. Lott, as a small girl. Her Aunt Jane and her Myrick family then lived - Prospect Community - west of Richton, Miss.

Stella and I went hunting June 8, 1976. From things she remembered we found all the old places and cemeteries. She had not gone since this early visit. It was most rewarding and profitable.

Stories Stella remembered, like the many, many acres, either land grants/homestead, most likely grants - they had slaves and farmed extensively - raised cattle and hogs. Never discard Grandma's or Auntie's family stories - they always have a truth and fit into family genealogy (Genealogy - rule in hunting those from whom we cometh).

1820 CENSUS - MISSISSIPPI - Book Form - Gillis

GREENE COUNTY (the year Perry Co. was created) Only One Bradley

BRADLEY, Herod - Males un/10 (1) 10/16 (1) Un/45

Females Un/10 (1) 10/16 (1) 10/26 (1) Un/15 (1)

Due to errors often made in Census Records in name spelling, using one name one time, and the next ten years using another name for same person. This "Herod" most likely/pretty surely - 1830 Census Miss. Book Form - Gillis, Perry Co. (They had not gone from one County to the other. (The counties were divided) "Herod" same person under different names to follow.

BRADLEYS (Greene/Perry Counties)

QUINCY AND ELIZABETH BRADLEY'S SIXTH CHILD, Frank

6. Frank Daniel, born Miss., 2 yrs. old by 1850, when families were first named in Census. More than likely already located 3 mis. north of Neely, Washington Community, where his old home now stands. Changed little by improvements (Stella and I were there, & I knew this family as early as 1920 - went to visit there many times. There was always "goodies" like pecans, peanuts, sugar cane) (though Mr. Frank had gone before I was born ZSA) He is buried on the home place, his son, Axam, said there was a split in the Church at Washington, and he preferred this burial place. He has a grave marker and cement slab. Born 1848, died 1907. Married Greene Co. Marriage records No. 1, Dec. 31, 1879. Daniel F. Bradley & Cintha Eliz. Turner. (spelling as record)

His wife, Cynthia (Aunt Cince to everybody) a very thrifty, self-sustaining woman. She kept her family together, & they made a good living after 1909 (time of his death) (I remember her well, & how good she made syrup - going to her Syrup Mill was a real high-light. ZSA) She was born in Miss & buried Washington/Neely Cemetery.

NOTES

All of these may have been heirs. On August 19, 1756, Christian, John and Henry Bingaman had been added to the tithables. By March 28, 1770, Christian Bingaman may have been on the long journey to the banks of the Mississippi in West Florida for as defendant in a suit by John Anderson, he is reported as being "no inhabitant" of Augusta County. (Chalk. I 74,160; III 42,76.) Christian Bingaman petitions and receives a warrant for 600 acres in the Natchez District, 6 Nov. 1776, and on Oct. 11, 1777 he pays the fees for his grant. (E (24) W. Fla.) This land was on the south fork of Boyd's Cr., 14 miles east of Natchez. (MPA-ED 245)

BRADLEY. At a meeting of the Council of West Florida, at Pensacola, 18 Dec. 1767, the petition of John Bradley was presented, asking for a grant of 1000 acres on the Mississippi where vacant. This was granted with the location unspecified. The next petition was that of David Williams for 1000 acres on the Mississippi adjoining lands of John Bradley, and was also granted. Bradley's tract was surveyed 5 Feb. 1768 as being $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of Fort Panmure and 4 miles from the River, bounded by Daniel Clark on the west and Servil Lafleur on the east. The patent was issued 22 July 1769 and signed by Gov. Montfort Browne. (Howard 85; MPA-ED 90)

Estate of John Bradley, decd., by Nathan H. Luce, executor. Heirs: Synthia Bradley, born May 25, 1781, Amelia Bradley, born 23 Dec. 1782, Harriet Bradley, 25 Aug. 1784, Rachel Bradley born 6 July 1786, Calvin Bradley, born 17 Jany. 1789, Luther Bradley, born 20 Nov. 1890, Archibald Bradley, born 27 Jany. 1793, Bradford Bradley, born 24 Nov. 1794, Bailey Bradley, born 2 July 1797, Levinia Bradley, born 3 Feby. 1799, Warren Bradley, born 15 Sept. 1800. Receipts of all of the above heirs except Warren "who was not of age." 3 Oct. 1821. Calvin Bradley, living in New Orleans on 25 Feb. 1810, by letter requests that his part of his father's estate be paid to "Mr. Henry". Synthia Bradley married James Cole, Amelia Bradley married Wm. Henry, Harriet Bradley married (1) Jeremiah Cory, (2) Elijah Swazey (his 2nd wife), son of Samuel, the pioneer, Rachel Bradley married Nathan Luse, son of Israel Luse and his wife, Deborah, daughter of Richard Swazey, the pioneer, Calvin Bradley married June 1823 Lydia Swazey, widow of Gabriel Swazey, Sr., Archibald Bradley married Phoebe, dau. of Samuel Swazey, the pioneer. (Prob. File No. 2, Adams Co., Miss., Eaton 21,22,24, Hendrix 63,66)

Benjamin, Joseph, Harry, Catherine and Sarah Bradley, whose petition for 5000 acres on River Mississippi where vacant was presented the Council at Pensacola, 16 Aug. 1768, were no doubt the "heirs of John Bradley" who received a grant of 4,140 acres near Natchez, but these claimants were classed as non-residents, against whom the case was decided in favor of the settlers who had inhabited, cultivated and improved the land, when all such claims came up before the U.S. Congress for consideration. (ASP-PL II 893.)

A Thaddeus Bradley had a militia donation in St. Clair County, Northwest Territory, now Illinois, by an Act of 3rd March 1791. This and two other tracts were claimed by his heirs through Susannah Bradley. He may well have been the Thaddeus Bradley who came to the Natchez District with the Lymans in 1773. There was much intercourse between the people of "the Illinois" and those of "the Natchez". (Howard 92, ASP-PL II 235-7.)

R. C. Bradley, late clerk of the circuit court of Jefferson County, is a native of Cumberland County, Va., and was born in 1839.

His parents, William R. and Ellen S. Carrington Bradley, were both natives of Virginia, but immigrants to Alabama in the year 1848, settling in Marion County, where they followed farming.

Richard was reared in Marion County, where he received an ordinary education. In 1860, when only twenty-one years of age, he was elected clerk of the circuit court of that county. He discharged the duties of the office faithfully, and in 1864 was re-elected.

This was one of the most trying periods of the war—the Confederacy in its last struggle for existence, and his section was infested with bands of robbers and stragglers from demoralized armies.

Upon the night of the 9th of April, 1865, an incident occurred which will long be remembered by him. Returning home from a call upon a neighbor, the house in which he boarded was attacked by three robbers. He was the only man about the place except a very old one, and being unarmed he was forced to stand and see them, unresisted, carry off the plunder, and march him along with it to a neighbor's house. They were also in the act of robbing that when Mr. Bradley seized a shot gun lying on a bed by him, and shot the captain of the squad dead. The others took to their heels and escaped, but were subsequently caught and executed by lynch law. Mr. Bradley was not even arrested, but was highly praised for his heroic conduct. He has written a highly interesting and exciting narrative of this event, which will be published.

In January, 1868, Mr. Bradley removed to Elyton, where he resided until December, 1872, and then moved to Oxmoor, where he resided until appointed county clerk, in January, 1880. In August of the same year he was elected by the people for a term of six years. This term of service ended November, 1886, and Mr. Bradley removed to Florida to engage in fruit culture.

He still retains interests in Jefferson County, where he made the record of an efficient and honest public officer, and is respected as a pure and upright citizen.

Mr. Bradley married September 6, 1866, to Miss Sallie Gurley, of Pickens County, Alabama. His wife died September 14, 1884, leaving four children.

Mr. Bradley is a member of the M. E. Church, South.

W. M. Burgin is a native of Jefferson County, Alabama, and was born in 1850. He is a son of W. M. Burgin, and Elizabeth C. McWilliams, both natives of Alabama. His maternal grandfather was from South Carolina. On the father's side he is of Virginia descent, and on the mother's, of Scotch. His father has been a farmer in Jefferson County for many years, and is still living near Birmingham. His grandfather McWilliams died in August, 1886, at the extreme age of eighty-six. The latter was also an extensive farmer of Jefferson County for many years.

The subject of this sketch was reared and educated in this county. His education was a common-school one, and one year spent at the Lebanon University, in Tennessee. At first he taught in the public schools of Jefferson, and in 1878 engaged in merchandising in Birmingham, and continued in that business for eight years. In 1886, at the general State election, he was elected clerk of the circuit court. His election was due to the appreciation of his worth by his many friends throughout the county. He resigned this position to accept the clerkship of the criminal court of Jefferson County.

In 1880, Mr. Burgin was married to Miss Mary E., a daughter of Mr. A. K. Martin, of Birmingham. He is the father of two children—Katie and Jennie.

Both he and Mrs. Burgin are members of the M. E. Church, South.

Fergus W. McCarthy was born in Cole County, Missouri, November 29th, 1858. His father, Fergus W. McCarthy, died when our subject was an infant. His mother's maiden name was Miss T. R. O'Grady. She went to Vicksburg, Miss., in 1860, and lived there until August 3, 1863, and then came to Montgomery, Ala. He commenced going to the Catholic parish school there when nine years old, and continued, without intermission, until October,

Dear Jean:

November 19, 1985

Just a note to thank you for the information. This was something I did not have, although I knew of one Samuel Wallis sighting in Washington Co., Alabama, in a property transaction with one of Polly Ray's ancestors named Bilbo.

This is a recent windfall that I got from a Bradley researcher in Arizona. It traces the Bradley line back to Virginia:

William Bradley = ?                                Hezekiah Rhodes m Elizabeth

The last entry, of course, is me. The first two generations of Bradleys were from Middlesex Co., VA.

I hope to get as lucky on the Wallis line some day. I guess that having luck instead of skill is a good trade.

Must close for now. Thanks again for your info. You are on a list to get one of my big printouts when it is finished.

Thanks,

Tom

Weyman Bell had confidence in the growth of Monroe and the county, and, as the town grew, business kept pace. He continued with the Monroe Coca-Cola Bottling Company until his death. At that time, his son John assumed management of the operation. Weyman was a Mason, an active member of the Monroe First Methodist Church, a steward, and chairman of the church board several times. From 1915 until 1931, he served on the city board of education. For many years, he was an outstanding figure in this community's civic, religious, and business life, and was widely known and respected. On March 24, 1908, Weyman married Emma Robinson, of Sullivan, Illinois. Their only child, John Robinson Bell, married Clara Knox, daughter of Mell and Gertrude Knox, of Social Circle, on December 25, 1931. Their children are John R., Jr., Mell Knox, and George Weyman.

Bradley

Thomas Bradley (b. 2/18/1792 Jackson County; m. Susannah Oliver Allen 2/8/1821; d. 3/25/1858 Walton County) was an Indian fighter, a veteran of the War of 1812, and a Baptist. Both he and his wife are buried in the Bradley Cemetery near Campton.

Susannah (b. 8/4/1802 North Carolina; m. 1st William B. Allen, 2nd Thomas Bradley; d. 8/12/1885 Walton County) was the daughter of Elijah (b. 1781 Virginia; d. 1854 Jackson County) and Mary Wise Oliver (b. 1779 North Carolina). She was sometimes called Susan. Her first husband, whom she married April 24, 1817, died March 15, 1819, leaving her with one child, William. Immediately after their marriage, Thomas and Susannah Bradley lived in Clarke County, but constructed the original Bradley home in Walton and moved there in March 1822.

Their children, all of whom were born in Walton County, were (1) Mary A. E. R. (b. 12/24/1822; m. Madison Jamison 12/16/1838) (2) Sara J. (b. 3/2/1825; m. F. Hale 12/6/1841); (3) Francis Marion (b. 11/7/1827; m. Stiry Camp 4/29/1851; d. 1/19/1863 Virginia); (4) Amanda T. (b. 2/8/1830; m. James F. Breedlove 2/25/1847; d. 1915 or 1916); (5) Susan A. (b. 11/21/1831; m. John F. Robertson 2/12/1852); (6) Nancy E. (b. 7/31/1833; m. Augustus Smith 1/29/1852); (7) Eliza F. (b. 7/27/1835; m. J. J. N. Kennedy); (8) Elijah O. (b. 8/5/1837; d. 1/6/1839); (9) Thomas J. (b. 11/8/1839; m. Sara Beall 1/2/1859; d. 7/2/1863 Gettysburg); (10) James M. (b. 4/23/1845; m. Mary Lochlin 9/19/1865; d. 7/17/1909).

... Lamps to Posterity

F. and Sara J. Bradley Hale's children were William, Robert, John, James, and Lucy. Those of Francis Marion and Stiry Camp Bradley were Amanda J. (d. young), Mary (b. 1854), and Thomas Russell (b. 9/1857; m. Angie R. Flanigan; d. 9/1898). James F. and Amanda T. Bradley Breedlove became parents of Amanda, Susan, Joel, Thomas, James, John, George, and Luticia. J. J. N. and Eliza F. Bradley Kennedy's children were Susan and Joseph. James M. and Mary Lochlin Bradley were parents of Oscar, Mollie, Sallie, Samuel, Thomas, James, and Rhodel.

Elijah O., son of Thomas and Susannah Bradley, lived only 17 months and was probably the first member of the family buried in the Bradley Cemetery. His grave is between that of his father and his brother Francis Marion. The latter enlisted for Confederate service August 13, 1861. He served as a junior lieutenant and died of measles and exposure in camp near Fredericksburg. His younger brother James M., just released in a prisoner of war exchange and recovering from wounds, accompanied Francis M.'s body home. James had been captured in the battle of Malvern Hill. Their brother Thomas J. enlisted in the Confederate army July 17, 1861, and was killed at Gettysburg. He is buried there.

Thomas Bradley, the father, owned 660 acres of good farm land surrounding the home site near Campton in 1852. He treated his slaves well, and long after they were freed they returned to be buried in the Bradley Cemetery. Twenty-three are mentioned by name in the appraisal of his estate after his death. Among his personal property noted by the appraisers were nine feather beds and steads, a rifle gun and shot bag, two spinning wheels, 16 head of sheep, a lot of books, two side saddles, and 21 pieces of bed clothing. In a sale of the property, the Negroes alone brought $17,672.89. Thomas and Susannah's son James M. bought the home and land. He built a new home on the family property only a short distance from the original home and took his mother to live with him and his family until her death at 83.

Thomas and Susannah's grandson Thomas Russell Bradley became the father of (1) Russell L. (b. 11/13/1877; m. Eliza Wilson); (2) Jennie Alma (m. Bob Etheridge); (3) Elijah Marion (b. 11/6/1880; m. Susie Etheridge); (4) Luther James (b. 2/9/1883; m. Esther Fowler; d. 4/4/1954); (5) Alvin Edwin (m. Mag Wages); (6) Susie Stiry (m. Vester Sikes); (7) Lou-tishie (m. J. L. (Bud) Norris); (8) Thomas Monroe (b. 10/9/1892; m. Daisy Ethel Williams; d. 5/1/1955); (9) Maybelle (m.

Louie Wages); (10) Cline Lloyd (m. 1st Esther Etheridge, 2nd Marie Phillips).

Briscoe

Since Walton County's very beginning, the Briscoe family has been closely identified with her history. Research here and abroad by Dr. DeWitt Briscoe of Monroe revealed an interesting lineage, including an ancestor who went to England with William the Conqueror.

From this progenitor, according to Dr. Briscoe, the line flows through (1) Robert Brisko of Brisko in the County of Cumberland, England; (2) Allan; (3) Gordon; (4) Robert; (5) Isold of Crofton Manor, who married Margaret Crofton, daughter of Sir John Crofton; (6) Christopher of Crofton Manor; (7) Robert of Crofton, who married Isabel Dikes, daughter of William Dikes of Warthall, Cumberland; (8) Robert of Crofton, who married Katherine Skelton, daughter of Clement Skelton of Pettrell Wray; (9) John; (10) Richard, who married Elizabeth Leigh, daughter of John Leigh of Erisvelington; (11) Leonard.

(12) Dr. John Briscoe (b. 1590), was married in England to Elizabeth DuBois of the Huguenot family of Count de Roussey Marquis DuBois, whose descendants had fled to England to escape religious persecution. This John Briscoe accepted the invitation of Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore, to come to Maryland in 1634 in the Ark and Dove expedition, and was the first of the line to come to America, settling in St. Mary's County, Maryland.

(13) Dr. John Briscoe; (14) Colonel Phillip Briscoe (b. 1648), the fifth son, married Susannah Swann, daughter of Colonel Samuel Swann of Maryland. His will is dated 4/25/1724, and he was a justice of Charles County court from 1694 to 1701. (15) Edward, the third son (m. Susannah Gerard, d. 1725); (16) John, a fourth son (married Mary Broomfield, d. 1818), was a wealthy Columbia County, Georgia, planter and physician. (17) Truman, married Katherine Dunn, daughter of Waters and Sarah Gatewood Dunn. Their children were John; Nancy; Sarah Rebecca; Waters; Sidney Rudolph; Ralph (b. 1798, m. Sarah Dougherty of Columbia County, d. 1881); Phillip; Mary; and Ellen.

(18) Ralph came to Walton in the county's early days with his brother Waters and other members of the family. His and Sarah's children were Frances (married a Cannon); Patrick Truman, M.D. (Columbia University, N. Y.); Elizabeth (married

From the Desk of the National Chairman:

I would like to welcome each of you to the work of this vital committee and I look forward to meeting many of you during the next three years. We extend a cordial invitation to you to visit our office any time you are in Washington. We want to help you in any way we can.

The Grandparent project is moving ahead well; however, several points need stressing. 1. Be sure that the form goes from grandparent to revolutionary ancestor. When a member is admitted on a short form, it is still necessary to carry the grandparent form back to the revolutionary ancestor. 2. Do not send in a grandparent set until a prospective member's papers have been accepted by the National Board. Remember, if you need help on a new line or supplemental, send $1.00 to this office with the revolutionary ancestor's name and that of his wife and the proven line will be sent to you if it is in our files.—Sue Eileen Walker Muldrow.

Office of Indian Affairs, would be held in order to determine the debts the deceased owed and to allow creditors to assert legitimate claims against the estate. In many instances land owned by the deceased would be sold, and the proceeds from the sale would be applied against those outstanding debts. A white settler would be appointed administrator of the estate, and at the foreclosure proceedings he would recognize the lowest bid of an associate. As a result the land could be acquired below its reasonable market value.⁴¹

Associated with Devereux in many land speculation deals was his partner Wildridge C. Thompson. On one occasion Devereux was charged with paying $1,000 to the heirs of a dead Indian for a valuable piece of land and later selling it for $10,705. When an investigation was held, however, Devereux was cleared of any misconduct and his operations in the land deal were described as "perfectly fair and honorable."⁴²

This particular case, known as the Pen hadjo Case, was in the courts for four or five years, and although Devereux was cleared of any wrongdoing in the matter there came up the question of legal title and other persons became involved. Devereux and Thompson had a lawyer, Thomas Abbott of Washington, D. C., working on the case which went to the Office of Indian Affairs of the War Department. Secretary of War Joel R. Poinsett was advised in April, 1840, that the case had been considered by the Creek Commissioners and that, "They recommend the confirmation of the Administration sale, on the special condition that Julien S. Devereux & Wildridge C. Thompson pay the sum of $5,000 in such a manner as the President may direct for the use and benefit of the heirs & legal representatives of Pen hadjo deceased."⁴³ A second party in the case, G. D. Shortridge, appealed the ruling, however, and the outcome is not known for Julien Devereux left the next year for Texas.

Most probably there were losses in the land speculating business and perhaps also in the operation of his plantation, for Julien S. Devereux was faced with heavy financial obligations in the late 1830's and early 1840's. For a time he was associated in business matters with his cousin, Alfred M. Devereux, and his sister's husband, Henry B. Holcombe, who had business interests of major importance in Mobile. These relatively ferred losses in many business ventures with Julien Devereux Between 1838 and 1841 Julien Devereux experienced considerable difficulty with creditors. During that period he piled up, totaling several thousand dollars, and he was engaged with court action on several personal notes and bills change.⁴⁴ These transactions had an adverse affect on ratings and were always looked upon with dread.⁴⁵ Devereux financial worries were typical of those faced by individuals during the general Panic of 1837, which was most severely the West and South and lasted until 1843. Two main causes the panic—expansion of credit and land speculation—were large measure responsible for Devereux's precarious financial condition.

As early as April 5, 1838, when he was thirty-two old, Julien S. Devereux had decided to move to the Republic of Texas, when he signed at Houston his intention to become a citizen.⁴⁶ During the summer of 1840 he was trying to home and land in Alabama, and on July 25 Robert Dougherty agreed to buy. Dougherty wrote to an associate, Whiting

Upon consulting with my wife I found her will move to Macon. You may therefore see Col Devereux say to him we will take his land & two thousand bushels of corn for twenty one thousand five hundred dollars. When we get the session & the ballance twelve months thereafter [sic] Say to old Mr. Devereux that he may keep possession of his house & his flowers & his fruits (provided we try long as he pleases.⁴⁷

John William Devereux was seventy-one years old at the time and wanted to continue to reside in his Valverdi cabin.

On December 17, 1840, Julien Sidney and Adaline R. Devereux were separated. According to the "Articles of ment"⁴⁸ it was "the pleasure, intention, and anxious desire of the said Adaline R. to leave the bed & board of her said Husband." In the settlement of property Adaline was to receive twenty-three slaves and "all the furniture [sic] of said Julien S. lately packed up with a view of being carried to Pensacola in Florida."⁴⁹ Julien was to pay a thousand dollars to Adaline for the "use and hire" of certain slaves during 1841 and the slaves were to be returned to Adaline on January 1, 1842. Descendants of the Bradley family have charged that during 1841 Julien Devereux "deserted his wife, took much of her money, many of her slaves and . . . [went] to Texas without ever having made contact with his wife or home and friends."⁵⁰

Perhaps the separation from his wife along with heavy debts caused Julien S. Devereux to look westward, and in October of 1841 he headed for "Jasper County in Texas."⁵¹ His reasons for leaving home and moving to Texas to get a new start in life were similar to situations faced by men like Sam Houston, Anson Jones, Mirabeau B. Lamar and others who had also experienced marital problems and political and financial reverses. Devereux ⁵⁰Willia. Allene Robinson to D. W., May 15, 1950. Miss Robinson writes that "Adaline Rebecca Bradley and her sister, Margaret Matilda Bradley—who married her cousin James H. Bradley the year preceding the marriage of Julien & Adaline were the sole heirs to a great estate or plantation and many negroes, near Montezuma [Covington County]. At the death of Margaret Matilda Bradley—sister of Adaline Devereux—Adaline took Margaret's 3 week old infant daughter, 'Margaret Matilda Bradley 2nd,' and reared her to young womanhood, later moving to Brooklyn, Alabama, Conecuh County, where my grandfather—Julius Gurdon Robinson Sr., met and married Margaret Matilda Bradley 2nd. After their marriage—and at the death of Adaline Devereux, my grandmother (the niece of Adaline Devereux) became sole heir to the last Bradley estate, a part of which Devereux had misused. My grandfather filed suits in court in an attempt to recover the property from Col. Devereux, but without success. It was never definitely known [in Alabama] what became of Devereux, as he could never be contacted by lawyers in the property cases. Therefore the property was lost by my grandmother." Mention should be made, perhaps, that on October 26, 1830, Julien S. Devereux was made administrator of the estate of his mother-in-law, and with John William Devereux presiding at the Covington County Orphan Court at Chamber on December 1, 1831, the "court order'd that said administrator [Julien S. Devereux] be authorized to sell the slaves belonging to the Estate of said Mary Bradley deceased." As early as January 18, 1831, Julien Devereux began to dispose of the Bradley estate and in February, 1832, he sold several slaves in the amount of $5312.23, and on November 2, 1832, Devereux had collected $1065.92 and had turned the amount over to "the clerk's office." Again on November 2, 1833, Devereux turned over to "the clerk's office" money collected from the sale of slaves and income from rent on the Bradley plantation.

was "well known in Alabama" in the early 1840's, and an acquaintance once stated that "a more honorable man than he while here could not have been found."⁵² Devereux may have debated at some length about staying in Alabama for he wrote: "Reconsidered the matter [of removal] declined making a crawfish of myself and finally came to Texas."⁵³ Father John William Devereux was not far behind; he left "Valverdi Macon County Alabama on the 26th of April 1842 for the single Star Republic of Texas,"⁵⁴ and across the detailed description of his log cabin on the pages of his "Memorandum and Common Place Book" he wrote in huge letters what so many pioneers would say with "G.T.T." on the door of a cabin:

son⁹⁷ for candidate for the presidency of the Republic. Bradburn left LaGrange for New Orleans, where he worked at various times on the New Orleans Topic, the Picayune, and the Bulletin. In 1848 he became editor of the Southern Sentinel, which he owned at the time of his death.

Frantz, The Newspapers of the Republic of Texas (M.A. thesis, University of Texas, 1940); Julia Lee Sinks, "Editors and Newspapers of Fayette County," Quarterly of the Texas State Historical Association, 1 (1897-1898); Leonie R. Weyand and Houston Wade, An Early History of Fayette County (1936).

Braden Branch. Braden Branch in southeastern Montague County is a tributary of Denton Creek.

Bradford, Texas. Bradford, in central Anderson County on a rural mail route from Montalba, is located in an agricultural and lumbering area settled by planters in the early 1850's. J. B. and D. D. Hanks established a sawmill and gin in the early 1900's, and population was 250 in 1915. The census of 1940 reported two stores and a population of fifty.

Bradley, Edward R. Edward R. Bradley, one of Stephen F. Austin's Old Three Hundred⁹⁷ colonists, received title to a league of land in present Brazoria County on August 10, 1824. The census of March, 1826, classified him as a farmer and stock raiser, aged over fifty. With him was his wife, Eliza, four sons, and two daughters. An Edward R. Bradley of Gonzales County was delinquent in direct taxes due the Republic of Texas in 1840.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: Lester G. Bugbee, "The Old Three Hundred," Quarterly of the Texas State Historical Association, 1 (1897-1898); Texas Sentinel, June 17, 1841.

Bradley, John. John Bradley, one of Stephen F. Austin's Old Three Hundred⁹⁷ knew the Moses Austin⁹⁷ family in Missouri in 1820. He was in Texas before April 20, 1824, when he took his oath of allegiance to the Mexican government at the home of James B. (Brit) Bailey.⁹⁷ Bradley received title to one league of land in present Brazoria County on July 8, 1824. The census of Austin's colony in March, 1826, showed him as a farmer and stock raiser, aged between twenty-five and forty. His household included his wife, Betsy, a son, and a daughter. On June 30, 1826, he wrote Austin that he had settled on the east side of the Brazos River and requested a labor of land at the mouth of the river.

Colorado County tax rolls in 1840 included a John Bradley, as did Lavaca County rolls in 1846. A John Bradley of Fayette County was captured with the Nicholas Dawson⁹⁷ men in October, 1842, and held at Perote Prison⁹⁷ in Mexico until September 22, 1843. A John Bradley from Georgia, who came to Texas in 1831, made his character certificate at San Augustine on August 22, 1835. The number of men of this name found in Texas in the early years probably accounts for the confusion of John Bradley of the Old Three Hundred with John M. Bradley.⁹⁷

Bradley, John M. John M. Bradley, a native of North Carolina, arrived in Texas with his four children in February, 1832. He took part in the battle of Nacogdoches⁹⁷ in August, 1832, and in October represented Tanaha at the Convention of 1832.⁹⁷ In 1835 he raised a company called the San Augustine Volunteers, which he commanded as captain at the siege of Bexar.⁹⁷ A resident of the Ayish district, Bradley fled to San Augustine in 1844 after Charles Watson (Watt) Moorman⁹⁷ attempted to assassinate him during the Regulator-Moderator War.⁹⁷ Moorman followed him to San Augustine and murdered him as he left church after a revival meeting.

Bradley, Thomas. Thomas Bradley was a partner of George B. Hall and Samuel T. Angier⁹⁷ as one of Stephen F. Austin's Old Three Hundred⁹⁷ colonists. They received title to a sitio of land in present Brazoria County on August 16, 1824. Thomas H. Bradley, possibly the same man, was third in command when the colonists gathered at Liberty to march against Juan Davis Bradburn⁹⁷ at Anahuac in 1832.

Bradley, Texas. Bradley, on Mountain Creek and the International-Great Northern Railroad in northeastern Johnson County, was named for Jackson Bradley, who moved to the area in 1835 and built the first school in the vicinity. A shift in county boundaries in 1881 moved Bradley from Ellis to Johnson County. About 1905 the school was consolidated with those in near-by communities. In 1940 Bradley was on a mail route from Alvarado and had a church, a school, a seasonal canning plant, and a population of twenty-five.

Bradley's Corner, Texas. Bradley's Corner, in northeastern Wichita County, originated as an oil boom town in 1919. In its existence of one or two years, it came to have the reputation of the wickedest place in existence, its life centering about a dance hall. With the end of the boom, the tent and shack town was torn down, and the oil derricks were later blown down by a storm.

Bradshaw, Texas. Bradshaw, on the Abilene and Southern Railroad four miles from the Taylor-Runnels county line, was originally a railroad stop. The village received its name from C. M. Bradshaw, on whose land the townsite was surveyed. Bradshaw is a shipping and marketing center for cotton, small grains, beef cattle, and sheep. A good school, eight stores, and a population of three hundred were reported in 1940.

Brady, John Thomas. John Thomas Brady, son of John and Mary Brady, was born in Charles County, Maryland, on October 10, 1830. He attended Charlotte Hall Academy before beginning to teach at the age of seventeen. He studied law, was admitted to the bar about 1855, practiced law in Maryland, and then edited a newspaper at Westport, Missouri, for about two years. In 1856 he established his law practice in Houston, Texas. Interested in breeding thoroughbred cattle, he was the first president of the Texas State Fair Association. On March 31, 1858, he married Caledonia Tinsley of Brazoria County. He was elected to the Tenth Legislature in 1863, serving as chairman of the committee on finance; in 1866 he was chairman of the committee on internal improvements in the

Bozeman, Albert L., State's attorney for Lauderdale county, is one of the representative members of the bar of the city of Meridian, where he controls a large and important practice. Mr. Bozeman has the distinction of being a native of the Old Dominion State, having been born in the city of Richmond, Va., Jan. 2, 1864, and being a son of Rev. Joseph W. and Mary (Smead) Bozeman, the former of whom was born in Alabama and the latter in Richmond, Va. Rev. Joseph W. Bozeman was a clergyman of the Baptist church, was a man of high attainments and labored long and successfully in his noble calling, having come to Mississippi when a young man and having held important pastoral charges at Lexington, Aberdeen, Meridian and other places. He continued to reside in this State until his death, which occurred in 1895, in the city of Meridian. The subject of this review secured his preliminary education in public and private schools and then entered historic old Mississippi college, at Clinton, where he was graduated as a member of the class of 1883, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He then took up the study of law and in 1887 he entered the law department of Columbian university (now George Washington university), in Washington, D. C., from which institution he received the degree of Doctor of Laws, in 1888. He forthwith began the practice of his profession in the city of Meridian, where he has since continued and where he has attained to distinctive prestige and success. In 1890 he was a member of the law firm of Cochran & Bozeman, and in 1904 he became a member of the firm of Fewell, Bozeman & Fewell. He is now conducting an individual practice. Mr. Bozeman is a staunch supporter of the cause of the Democratic party and has been an effective worker in its ranks. He served for a time as city attorney of Meridian, has been State's attorney for the county since 1896 and is also local attorney for several railroads entering Meridian. On Aug. 24, 1899, Mr. Bozeman was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Hoskins, of Brookhaven, Miss., and they have one child—Albert L., Jr.

Bradley, Rufus P., one of the representative farmers of Wayne county and a valued member of the board of supervisors of the county, has his postoffice address at Strengthford. He has passed his entire life thus far in the State of Mississippi, and has achieved success through his own efforts, which have been directed along legitimate lines of endeavor and guided and guarded by a spirit of absolute integrity and honor. He was born in Perry county, Miss., March 21, 1849, and is a son of James M. Bradley. His father was born in North Carolina, but while he was still a child his parents came to Mississippi, where he was reared to manhood and where he was identified with agricultural pursuits during the entire course of his independent career. He became the owner of a good farm in Perry county and was held in high esteem by all who knew him, being a man of positive character and unquestionable probity and having taken an active interest in public affairs of a local nature.

His death occurred in Perry county in the year 1879. Rufus P. Bradley was reared to the sturdy discipline of the homestead plantation, in whose work and management he early began to assist, while his educational advantages were somewhat limited, owing to the exigencies of time and place. His schooling was principally secured in Jasper county, where he resided several years. He made his efforts count in his youth and in course of time became one of the prosperous farmers of his native county, where he was held in the highest popular esteem, being called upon to serve in various offices of public trust. He was a member of the board of supervisors of Perry county for two years, was county surveyor for an equal period, served four years as assessor, and made an excellent record in the office of sheriff, of which he was incumbent four years. In 1892 Mr. Bradley disposed of his interests in Perry county and removed to Wayne county, where he now owns and operates a well improved plantation. He has served as justice of the peace of this county, and his services have also been called into requisition as a member of the board of supervisors, of which he is a member at the present time. He is in control of important interests as local land agent for the great lumbering firm of D. A. Blodgett & Company, of Grand Rapids, Mich., whose holdings in Mississippi timber lands are very extensive. In politics Mr. Bradley is unwavering in his allegiance to the Democratic party, and he is affiliated with Waynesboro lodge Free and Accepted Masons, having been identified with this fraternity since 1870. In December, 1879, Mr. Bradley was married to Miss Sophia F. McDonald, daughter of Alexander McDonald, a prominent and influential citizen of Simpson county, Miss., and of the children of this union seven are living, namely: Margaret E.; Mary E., who is married and resides in Wayne county; Annette, wife of J. D. Dykes, of Perry county; and Lola, Laura, J. Rufus and William, who remain at the parental home, as does also the eldest daughter.

Bratton, Carl A., of Pontotoc, is one of the able representatives of the legal profession in Pontotoc county, and is a scion of pioneer families of the State. He was born at New Albany, Union county, Miss., July 27, 1878, and is a son of William A. and Martha (Roach) Bratton, both of whom were likewise born in that State. His father is engaged in the drug business in New Albany and is one of the representative citizens of Union county; he is a son of Espie Bratton, who was a pioneer settler of Tippah county and who was a loyal soldier of the Confederacy in the war between the States. The mother of the subject of this review is a daughter of James Roach, who was one of the first settlers of Union county, where he took up his residence in 1830, having removed thither from Rus-

To the Honorable Hardy Dear Judge of the Probate Court of Harris County in the State of Mississippi

The Petition of Calum Bradley of said County, Respectfully sheweth unto your Honor That by his former Marriage with Victorie Leconte, he had two Children, who are now living. One named Anne Bradley aged about eleven years, The other named Letitia Bradley aged about Six Years, that their mother has been dead about four years, and that he is the lawful guardian by nature, of the persons of his said children, That about the day of 1815 Amie Gilot, who was the mother of Petitioner's former wife Victorie, Leconte, and the Grand mother of his said minor children deceased, ~~bequeathed~~ ^{conveyed} ~~his~~ ^{her} ~~estate~~ ^{estate} ~~to~~ ^{to} his said children, a lot of land as follows, to wit, bounded on the East by land belonging to Estate of William St Keland North by the Livingston Claim west by a lot ~~then~~ conveyed by said Amie Gilot to Adelaide St Amant and North by the Gulf of Mexico, and extending between parallel lines Sixty four feet apart North 28° west forty acents, with the exception of that part of said lot, which extends across a lot of one acre in depth, which belongs to Louis Caradon.

Your Petitioner further sheweth unto your Honor, that after the ^{conveyance} death of the said ^{deceased} John Girdle and ~~the~~ ^{that} of his wife in Your Honor's Court he took possession of said land and I need not reason the same out, for the term of five years from the day of ~~1849~~ 1849 with the condition that the Lessee should build thereon a store house at the yearly rent of one hundred and fifty dollars.

That your petitioner has received from the Lessee the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars which he has paid out in ~~costs~~ fifty dollars for schooling or use for ~~the~~ said children and the balance on hand.

Your Petitioner is advised and believes that as Guardian by nature he has a right to the custody of his said minor children, for the purpose of nurture and tuition, but that it is necessary that there should also be a guardian of their Estate, and to administer and manage the same to lease the same and to collect the rents and take care of and keep in repair said property during the minority of said children. And that your petitioner as their father and natural Guardian, has a right to letters of Guardianship over their estate, unless there is some good reason to the contrary, which does not exist

Your Petitioner therefore prays that your Honor will grant him letters of Guardianship according to the provisions of the Statute of the persons and estate of the said Aurora and Letitia Bradley on his entering into Bond with security as required by law, which he is ready and willing to do Calvin Bradley, And Your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray &c

The Petition of Aurora Bradley - & Lutezia Bradley minors by their next friends Victor Ducondreau this wife Magdeline Leconte of the town of Pass Christian - most Respectfully represent.

That your Petitioners ~~are~~ the lawful issue of the marriage of Calvin Bradley, now living & Victoire Leconte who died in October A.D. 1847. - That your Petitioners Aurora & Lutezia Bradley are respectfully nine & seven years old or thereabouts.

That since their mother's death their father has neglected their personal welfare - has done little or nothing for their maintenance & Education - That they have been mostly indebted to others than their father for their care, protection & necessary daily wants. That their father lives a very dissipated life - neglects your petitioners entirely. That he does nothing for their maintenance or Education. That for some time past your petitioners have been under the care & protection of a natural Aunt - one of our said next friends by whom we now ~~are~~ our lawful father

Calvin Bradley then him removed as our natural protector and guardian by the Honorable Court. & Petitioners allege that they have a good right to believe & feel that then our father would take care of them under all circumstances - but that they find they have been shamefully neglected & badly treated in their pecuniary affairs by their father. That the holy tie which should bind father & children together during their helplessness has been wickedly broken - & the sacred trust that Nature has imposed upon that father of caring & maintaining his minor children - has been grossly ~~violated~~ - that trust has devolved mostly upon our natural Aunt & her husband our next friends. in this suit
- Petitioners further own that our father has not only failed to consider our personal necessities - but has acted in bad faith in regard to our property donated to us by our ~~father~~ grand mother - Aimee Gornet who has since died.
That our father has assumed for his own benefit to rent the real Estate so donated to us & has not only failed to account to the Court for the monies arising from the same - but has used the same for his own benefit.
They request & still refuse to use any of the money so arising from the rent of Petitioners Estate for their maintenance or Education - through repeated applications for the same has often been made by our next friends - our said Aunt & Uncle The Petitioners charge, that their father is too immoral & dissipated to have the care of their education - or the proper conduct of their persons.

That since the 4th of June A.D. 1847
^{our} father Calvin Bradley has wholly ^{neglected} to have himself duly appointed guardian of an Estate - but has illegally taken possession of the same & uses the profits for his own benefit. Petitioners charge that our father is abundantly able to support us out of his own Estate had he the inclination or the parental affection to do so. Petitioners allege that it was the duty legal & moral of our father to support us out of his ~~private~~ means - being able to do so - without using any portion of our Estate on such account - but he has not done us the justice of using our Estate for our maintenance & education - We desire our father's legal power & control over our persons to cease for that our next friends, will be duly appointed in his stead over our persons as well as our property. We oppose our father becoming guardian of our property - for if he will not respect the moral obligation nature has imposed upon him of nurturing & maintaining & educating us - there is little confidence to put by us in his legal obligations

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Thank you so much for your reply to my two letters regarding the Bradleys and Ligney's. I do appreciate the information. I don't know very much about Greene County, since my family moved away (to Greenville, in Washington County) when I was about 8 years old. My parents moved back to Greene County 14 years ago, after Daddy retired.

I am not yet convinced that "my" George Washington Bradley was the son of Sion and Aquilles Bradley. My mother's mother, Winnie Bradley, is enumerated on the 1900 Census as the daughter of George W. Bradley and Vicy A. Bradley. By the 1910 Census, Winnie was married to Henry Byrd and living in Greene Co. I have a letter from Evie (Daughdrill) Elmore of Lakesville that says that her father, Coley Daughdrill, was a first cousin to Winnie Bradley. Her grandmother, Mary Pocahontas Bradley, who married John Daughdrill, and Washington Bradley were sister and brother. Your pages of Who Married Whom - Perry Co.

show Mary Pocshontas to be the daughter of Quincy and Elizabeth.
I asked my mother, if she ever knew of two George Washington Bradleys and she said, "No". She told me that her grandma Lavicy Bradley was living with my mother's parents, Henry and Winnie Byrd, when Lavicy died.
My mother was about 12 years old,
so that would make Lavicy's death date about 1925. Mother said that Lavicy is buried at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in a grave with a small marker with no name or date. She said she didn't know where Washington Bradley is buried, because he had separated from Lavicy years before her death - I didn't think to ask her about the Confederate Pension.

I talked to my Daddy about the information you gave me on the Rigney's. He really doesn't know much about them, but judging from such things that he does remember, I'd say that you have given me the correct names.

I am sending you a copy of the Bradley / Daughdrill book, it is yours ^{Bradley 149} to keep. I hope you will be able to gain some information that you don't already have.
Again, I appreciate your information.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

A few days ago I wrote you a letter requesting information about my mother's grandmother, Lavicy Bradley. After mailing the letter I realized that I had given you some incorrect information about my father. I believe that I wrote that both my mother and father were born in Greene County, Miss. Actually my father, Carl Edwin Roberts, was born in Wayne County, on January 4, 1908. He is the son of William Warren "Bill" Roberts of Greene Co. and Josephine Elizabeth "Josie" (Kigney) Roberts of Wayne Co. The family had moved to Greene Co. by the time of the 1910 Census, as they are enumerated there. Josephine (Kigney) Roberts had brothers Taylor, William, Raleigh, and Eli; and sisters Annie who married a Harris, Jenny who married possibly twice, the second time to a Preston, and Elvira, who possibly married twice, the first time to a Sikes.¹⁵¹

I believe their mother's name was Elizabeth, as I have found on the 1910 Census for Wayne County William Rigney's family,
Taylor Rigney's family, and Monroe Sikes' family which included his wife Elvira and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Rigney, who was a widow.

I have searched the 1900 Census
for Wayne County but found no Rigneys.

Josephine (Rigney) Roberts was born Oct. 28, 1885 (in Miss., according to 1910 Census of Greene Co.). She died Oct. 14, 1956 at age 70 and is buried in Mutual Rights Cemetery near Avera, in Greene Co., next to her husband.

That is about the extent of my knowledge of the Rigneys. If you can provide any additional information,
I would appreciate your help.

Again, I am enclosing a stamped,
addressed envelope.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

The M Club of the University of Mississippi is composed of those men who have lettered in one of the University's major inter-collegiate sports, football, basketball, baseball, and track. It is the purpose of the M Club to recognize excellence in athletic ability and to promote the welfare of athletics on the campus. The main contribution of the M Club to the campus as a whole is the encouragement of that intangible but vital element—School Spirit. Besides fostering an interest in athletics and providing a common ground upon which those who have excelled in college athletics may meet, the M Club sponsors the annual pass good for a touchdown. The conversion was good, and the score was 7 all.

The Rebs moved down the field after the kickoff to the Tennessee 21 with Dottley carrying the load, and Rocky Byrd hitting Jack Stribling with a pass which covered 21 yards. But the Vols took over, and Lauricella put the Rebels in a hole with a 64 yard quick kick. Wilson kicked, and the Vols began to roll.

Lauricella, who was in great form all day, completed a pass to Reicielar, who galloped over for the touchdown. The conversion made the score 14 to 7 at the end of the first quarter.

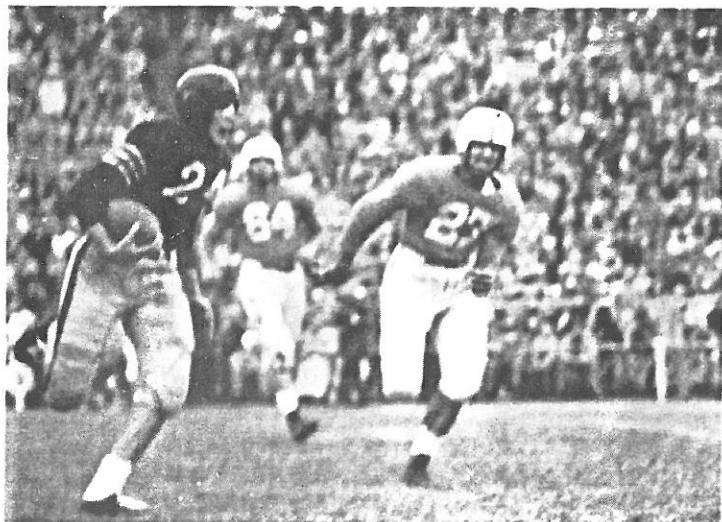

The Vols had found out that they couldn't go through the forward wall of the Rebels with Jimmy Crawford, Dale, Fant, Boggan, and the Stribling brothers playing great ball; so they kept the murky Memphis air filled with passes. This procedure paid off in the second quarter as Lauricella once again completed to Cummings, who went 54 yards for the tally.

Billy Mustin brought the Rebs' hopes up again when he took the kickoff on the 14, and sped past the would be tacklers; but he was knocked out of bounds on the Tennessee 21 yard line after going 55 yards. Ole Miss moved the ball to the one yard line on third down, but could not punch it over for the score. The half ended 21 to 7 in favor of the Vols.

A partially blocked Rebel kick, and a Lauricella pass to Cummings set the stage for Polofsky to plough six yards for the fourth Tennessee score. The rains came, and so did the Vols' fifth touchdown. Cooper hauled in a pass thrown by Rocky Byrd, and sailed 50 yards to wrap up the day's activities.

The game was hard fought by both teams, and two players on each team were ejected for roughness. The Ole Miss line was in top form, and the Tennessee team did not try very often to go through it. The Vols were held to 26 yards rushing; but their air attack proved to be sufficient.
